“In the Spotlight” Featured Article

Every month Captain’s Directory publishes a new feature article on a marine or yachting business that offers a new, innovative or specialized service or product. If you want your business to be featured on Captain’s Directory “In the Spotlight” section you will need to provide us with the information and photos pertaining to your service or product. Your article will be at the top of the “In the Spotlight” section for one month or until the next “In the Spotlight” article takes its place. It will move down farther on the page as new articles are published. A direct link will be placed on the Captain’s Directory Facebook page linking to the article, and targeting thousands of yachting industry professionals.
